Resource Corner

Looking for resources to help guide your Lenten journey? Look no further than your public library!

Many libraries have a wealth of resources hidden in their bookshelves. For example, a key word search for Lent or Easter at Columbus Metropolitan Library returned a list of 1185 publications. These ranged from musical scores and recordings to books in the children's section to Lenten menus. Many libraries are linked together, including Marysville with Grandview Heights, Granville with Newark, and Westerville with OhioLink (which includes OSU, Capital University and Otterbein College libraries). While the resource you are looking for might not be at your local branch, you may be able to get it through interlibrary loan. You can perform these searches at the library or at home, via the internet or a phone call to a reference librarian. Some search terms you may want to try: Church year, fasts and feasts, Jesus Christ Passion, Passion music, Lenten menus.

For the libraries listed above (a very non-inclusive list):

Columbus Metropolitan Library System: www.cml.lib.oh.us or 614-645-2ASK

Granville Public Library: www.granvillelibrary.org or 740-587-0196

Marysville Public Library: www.marysville.lib.oh.us or 937-642-1876

Westerville Public Library: www.wpl.lib.oh.us or 614-882-7277

Convention Update

Christ Present . . . When the Church Prays and Sings

July 14 - 18, 2003

Cincinnati Convention Center

Convention brochures are now available (as a pdf file) on the NPM web site at www.npm.org.

National Convention would love to see the "face of your church". As part of a video that will be used during convention, national is asking for pictures of our church praying and singing, pictures of musicians, assemblies and celebrations. If you would like your community to be part of the "faces of our church", submit your pictures (digital preferred, hard copy cannot be returned) before April 15, 2003 to: Peter S. Maher, Program Coordinator, National Association of Pastoral Musicians, 962 Wayne Avenue, Suite 210, Silver Spring, MD 20910-4461 or e-mail them to NPMPeter@npm.org.
