Mark Your Calendars --

The Care and Feeding of the Voice Saturday, January 22, 2005

Please join us as we spend several hours with Kerrie Obert, a clinical voice pathologist at the OSU Voice Institute, discussing vocal health and hygiene. Ms. Obert, a certified course instructor for Estill Voice International, holds degrees in both musical theatre performance (Mars Hill College, NC) and speech language pathology (OSU) and is specially trained to work with patients with voice problems. She has also published Geography of the Voice: Anatomy of an Adam's Apple, has conducted research on voice disorders, has lectured nationally and internationally on singing technique and maintains a private voice studio.

Where: Holy Spirit Catholic Church
4383 E Broad Street, Columbus, Ohio

When: January 22, 2005, 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

This event is free and open to all!
Please RSVP to help with materials planning!

-To the over 150 singers who participated in our first Diocesan Festival Choir . . .

-To the wonderful individual choirs that brought a great diversity of music to the concert . . .

-To the Festival Handbell Choir, the brass, the organ and piano who added color and depth to the music . . .

-And last, but certainly not least, to all who helped plan and execute that day . . .

Thank you. Thank you. Thank you . . .

Plans are already in the works for Festival 2005!

Great things are planned for the rest of 2005 including a Dan Schutte concert and workshop on September 30 and October 1, 2005!
